POLICEMAN JAMES' FUNERAL.

Services Will Be Conducted at His Late Residence.

The funeral of Policeman Charles E. James, who died at his home, 807 F Street southwest, at 12 o'clock last night, will take place Monday morning at 10 o'clock. The services will be conducted by the officers of Eastern Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., and will be held at the house. The body will be placed in a vault at Congressional Cemetery.

The deceased had been a member of the police force for a number of years, and twenty years ago was detailed for clerical work at headquarters, where he was stationed at the time of his death. For some time past he had had charge of the record of arrests kept at headquarters, and was assistant to the chief clerk, Mr. James had been in bad health for a long time, and was unable to attend to his duties at headquarters regularly for several months.

Major Sylvester was informed of the officer's death this morning, and will probably order a detail of policemen to attend the funeral, if agreeable to the wishes of the family.

Things Theatrical.

From all accounts, interested and disinterested, it appears that Manager "Hughes" Kernan has a combination of unusual merit in the "Victoria" Burlesques, which are to be seen next week at the Lyceum. This organization is an entirely new one, having been on the road but a short time. It is said, however, to be as lavishly equipped and as capable as are the generally of companies sent out by Edward Bush. A strong duo is promised as a portion of the entertainment to be given here, while a musical review, "A High Ball," and a Mongolian pantomime, entitled "A Night in Chinatown," are to open and close the performance. Seats for the week have been on sale since Thursday morning and are supposed to be going with a rapidity unexpected in view of the continued hot weather.

Harness Awaits an Owner.

The police have in their possession a complete double set of fine carriage harness, valued at $100, for which they are trying to find an owner. The harness was recovered from Frank Sturgis, who was arrested on suspicion by Detective Hendon and Lacey on July 25, while trying to dispose of it for $10. Sturgis said the harness was stolen in Philadelphia, and was sent to him. The Philadelphia authorities were notified of the arrest and recovery of the property, but have not been heard from.

THE CROSSINGS

It Will Be Materially Lessened in the Future.

Major Sylvester's Recent Order Regarding Speed of Vehicles at Street Corners Meets With Popular Approval—Protection for Pedestrians. Regulations Will Be Enforced.

One of the recent orders of Major Sylvester to the members of the Police Department regarding the speed of vehicles around corners in the business section of the city and which also provides for the protection of persons alighting from street cars at transfer stations, has met with the approval of the people who are compelled to be upon the street at all corners of the day. It is a police regulation which provides for the speed of vehicles around corners and at railway crossings, but it is said this regulation has not heretofore been very strictly enforced.

In other cities it is the custom to have policemen stationed at dangerous crossings whose duty it is to pilot the pedestrian safely through the labyrinth of teams to the crossing. This has been done here to a certain extent, as far as the stationing of the policemen was concerned, but the officers did not pay attention to pedestrians. The duty of the officers was manifold, and they spent most of their time trying to regulate the movement of teams over the crossings. Hereafter it has not been understood that pedestrians were to have the right of way at such places, and consequently the matter of clearing the crossings of obstructing wagons was received most of the officers' attention.

After the promulgation of the order referred to, however, the duty of the policeman is finally established. The regulation also applies to drivers who insist on driving on the wrong side of the street. This is said to cause great annoyance to those who comply with the law and it is also said to be responsible for numerous blockades. Major Sylvester received a number of complaints from citizens regarding the condition of the streets at certain times of the day and has given the matter considerable attention. It is not possible with the small number of men who police the city to have the major claims, to establish a squad of men who will look after the crossings in the manner of the Broadway squad of New York, but he expects in the course of time to be able to organize such a squad and place the men on duty at the crossings. At present this work is confined solely to the crossing men at the crossings. The various street car lines in the city. These men are paid by the street railroad companies, but are subject to the orders of the Superintendent of Police. There are some crossings which are very dangerous on which no men are stationed and it is the intention of Major Sylvester to remedy this defect as soon as possible. He will grant him the necessary number of men.

COUNSEL FOR SNEEL.

No Attorneys Have Been Retained for His Defence.

Benjamin H. Snell, who is charged with the murder of thirteen-year-old Lizzie Weisenberger, has not yet succeeded in securing counsel for his defence. At the coroner's inquest held last night, Snell was represented by former Deputy Commissioner of Penitentiaries, Charles Perry Lincoln. Mr. Lincoln acted in this capacity at the request of friends of Snell, though he had never known the man. Later Mr. Lincoln and Snell were taken to the police station, where they were held in custody. A. C. Birney, it is understood, was asked to defend the prisoner.

Snell's morning of the inquest was his father-in-law, Mr. L. L. Snell, living in Montpelier, Vt., and to his two brothers in Georgia, where one, it is understood, is a county judge, and the other a clerk in the county court. It was the expectation that he would receive substantial assistance from these relatives that Snell hoped to be defended by Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Birney. It appears, however, that neither of the gentlemen named will be retained in the case. It is understood that Mrs. Snell's father as well as Snell's brothers in Georgia have not declined the offer of coming to Washington. Mrs. Snell refused to discuss the question of the help expected from the prisoner's relatives last night, though she understood that they had reached the city. Snell has written a letter to a chief of division in the Pension Office stating that his family will soon be in need of money and that he is unable to pay the expenses of his defence. He has also been received at the Pension Office from the Washington Post, and the clerk of the southern and middle divisions for financial aid toward defraying the funeral expenses of the dead girl.

THE WRONG SMITH RELEASED.

Robert F. and Not Robert Should Have Been Released.

On account of the similarity of names, Robert F. Smith, who should be at large, is still languishing in the District Jail, while Robert Smith is enjoying his freedom and fresh air.

The release of the wrong Smith was, of course, entirely accidental and is due entirely to the similarity of the names. Robert F. Smith is charged with the murder of Lizzie Weisenberger and is held for grand larceny—both having been committed to jail about a month ago, in default of bail for their appearance for trial. A rather curious circumstance connected with the two cases is that the prosecuting witnesses in both cases have written to the District Attorney, asking that the prisoners be released on their personal bonds, as they do not desire to press the charges. In the case of Robert F. Smith the reasons given for his release were satisfactory to the district attorney and he recommended that it be done.

An order for the release of Robert F. Smith was telephoned to the jail yesterday afternoon and he was sent to the district attorney's office in charge of a deputy marshal by Warden Harris. The prisoner was taken to the clerk's office where he has been answering the necessary questions for identification, was set free.

A LIBRARY FOR TENLEYTOWN.

A Movement for the Benefit of the Suburban Village.

The Tenleytown Library Association was fully organized last night at a meeting held at the village Town Hall, one room of which has been generously offered for the use of the library by Rev. Father Mallon, Pastor of St. Ann's Catholic Church. The officers elected were: Albert E. Shoemaker, president; Mrs. G. C. F. Bratenahl, vice president; Mrs. Alice U. Hunt, secretary, and Mrs. Maria Devereux, treasurer.

The object of the library, which exists largely to the active efforts of Mr. Hunt, is to promote education, to entertain the youth of the village, and to create a centre of interest for those boys, especially, who for lack of such a source of entertainment, spend the greater part of their playtime in the streets. The movement has the active co-operation of the clergymen of the various churches of Tenleytown. Rev. Mr. Bratenahl, Rev. Father Mallon, Rev. Mr. Peck, and Rev. Mr. McCullough. An encouraging feature of last night's meeting was the enthusiastic interest evidenced by the number of ladies in attendance.

The board of management will include five residents of the village in addition to the officers already elected. Any donation of games, books, furniture, and money, of course will be of great assistance. Donations may be sent to the secretary, Mrs. Munt, of Tenleytown.

HIS PAY NOT INCREASED.

Naval Attaché Colwell to Receive No Additional Salary.

The Comptroller of the Treasury recently received a letter from Lieutenant Commander Colwell, the United States naval attaché at London, asking if he was entitled to army pay and allowance from the date of the approval of the Naval Personnel act last March and if he was entitled to receive the same pay and allowance as the army officers. The naval attaché does not, therefore, necessarily receive as much pay as the military attaché stationed at the embassy. Lieutenant Commander Colwell is entitled to the compensation of quarters as an officer on shore duty.

LARGE INCREASE OF EXPORTS.

Last Month the Best July the Country Has Ever Had.

The statement of July exportations of breadstuffs, provisions, cotton and mineral oils issued by the Treasury Bureau of Statistics yesterday shows a larger total for July, 1899, than that of any preceding July. The Bureau of Statistics has issued in each month during several years an advance statement of the exports of these four principal articles of our domestic exports. These four articles usually form about two-thirds of the total exportation of domestic products.

A comparison of the advance figures for last month with July of earlier years shows a larger total for these four articles in each year than in any preceding one. The following are the figures given by the advance statement for these four articles since 1890: Exports of breadstuffs, provisions, mineral oils, and cottons: July, 1890, $33,410,628; July, 1891, $30,427,913; July, 1892, $37,429,487; July, 1893, $43,476,951; July, 1894, $32,069,747; July, 1895, $39,845,261; July, 1896, $35,711,530; July, 1897, $37,564,160; July, 1898, $37,183,721; July, 1899, $49,534,516.

An important factor, which should have careful attention, when purchasing paints is color. When this fades you're worse off than when you use the paint.
